4. The undersigned does not bind himself to assign any reasons for accepting or rejecting any quotation. The envelope containing the Quotation should be superscribed “QUOTATION FOR UNDERTAKING EVALUATION STUDIES.”

A. TEWARI,

Director,

Programme Implementation and Evaluation Department.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. INTRODUCTION

Evaluation plays a vital role in providing feedback information to the policy makers and planners in the State on the actual performance and impact of the different developmental Schemes/Programmes/Projects being implemented by various departments throughout the State. Keeping in view its importance and to enable the Government to know the extent of success and failure of the schemes vis-a-vis stated objectives and also to help in formulation of better development plans in future, the Government has decided that the reach and efficacy of the State Evaluation Organisation be increased by involving independent, external agencies of repute in the evaluation and monitoring process. Their services would be paid for by the State Evaluation Organisation who would lay down norms for them, provide handholding support and work with them towards achieving the desired objectives. The State Evaluation Organisation would thereafter monitor and track follow up action as well as liaise with the departments/line agencies concerned.

2. EVALUATION STUDY PROPOSED TO BE OUTSOURCED :

Evaluation study on Accelerated Rural Water Supply Programme (ARWSP) in Meghalaya is proposed to be outsourced :

3. DESIGNING OF EVALUATION STUDY :

Evaluation study should be designed to assess the performance, processes of implementation, effectiveness of the delivery systems and impacts of programme/scheme. The study is to be diagnostic in nature and aim at identifying factors contributing to successes and / or failures of the programme and thus help in deriving lessons for improving the performance of existing scheme (s) through mid-course corrections and better designs for future programmes. Thus, designing of schedules-cum-questionnaires are to be carried out in consultation with State Programme Implementation and Evaluation Organisation.

TERMS OF REFERENCE*4. PROCEDURES OF EVALUATION :

Evaluation should be carried out in a professional, realistic, diplomatic and ethical manner.

5. TIME LIMIT :

The entire Evaluation process including submission of reports should be completed within 6 (six) months from the date of award of the work. In no case extension of time will be granted except for circumstances beyond the control of the bidders, for which extension, at the discretion of the Government will be granted without any financial repercussions. However, such disruptive circumstances should be brought to the notice of the Government for its intervention.

6. EVALUATION OF REPORT:

The Evaluation Report should contain an Executive Summary which will provide a bird's eye view of the substantive elements of the report. The Evaluation Report is expected in two stages, viz (i) Draft Report and (ii) Final Report. The draft report should be circulated to all concerned for clarifications, if any, on the major findings after which 25 (twenty five) hard copies of the final report should be presented to the Government along with one soft copy preferably on compact disc.

7. PAYMENT OF FEES :

The fees quoted by the bidders shall be inclusive of all expenses and no request for escalation or revision would be entertained under any circumstances.

50% payment would be made on acceptance by the bidders of their selection to undertake the specified studies and the balance 50% will be made on receipt of the approved final Report.

Payment of fees is subjected to deduction of Income Tax at source as per Income Tax Rules.

8. TERMINATION OF AGREEMENT :

The Agreement can be terminated by the Government if the bidder(s) fails to fulfill the terms and conditions of the contract and in the event of such termination due to the lapses of the bidder(s), the Government will not be responsible for any financial loss to the bidder(s).

Bidders are requested to submit their quotations which include "Expression of Interest or technical bid and Financial Offer" strictly in accordance with the Terms of Reference and not to stipulate any pre-conditions. Should it, however, become unavoidable, the right to evaluate the bids containing comments/conditions having financial implications after adding the cost arising out of such comments/conditions lies with the Government.
